

“Rules for Backlog Detention”

Followings are general rules for all courses under clause ‘Backlogs for detention’ shall be read as follows:

1. Backlogs: Failing in any heads of the subject (E, I or P / V) will carry subject backlog.
2. Backlogs for detention: For the student detention of various courses the maximum backlogs a student can carry will be equal to Five (5) at any point of time. However it will be based on the declaration of results of remedial exam of the previous semester.
3. Previous semester backlogs in university exam, irrespective of number of attempts by a student, shall not be considered for detention

Exam Section

Marwadi University